Hello,

Thank

you for emailing the Boundary Commission for England with your comments in response to our initial proposals for new Parliamentary constituency boundaries.

We

couldn't see your postal address on your email. However, we need your address in order to process your representation and take into account your views.

Please provide us with your address by replying to this email.

We

require physical address information to help us ensure the responses we receive are from unique individuals. Additionally, as our consultation is very much concerned with a respondent's sense of place and community, when publishing responses (which the law requires us to do), we will associate your response with the general locality of your address, unless it relates entirely to a different area.

We will not publish your name or detailed address with your response, unless you specifically ask us to do so.

You can find out more about our approach to protecting and using your personal details in our
